

HOMI FASHION&JEWELS EXHIBITION WILL BE BACK FROM 15 TO 18 SEPTEMBER AT FIERA MILANO (RHO)

The event dedicated to fashion accessories, clothing and jewellery is already set for the September edition with new areas and restyled itineraries for visitors. Both the collaboration with Poli.Design and the schedule with talks and fashion shows are confirmed.

Homi Fashion&Jewels Exhibition, the only trade fair completely dedicated to fashion accessories, clothing and jewellery, returns with a new edition from next 15 to 18 September at Fieramilano (Rho).

Several new features will be added to an already successful event that gives value to many proposals by Italian and foreign brands through an original and always evolving format. This edition will see the presence of more than 500 brands, with 35% of them coming from abroad, that will put on display their fashion accessories and jewellery collections for the Autumn/Winter 2023 season, but also some previews of the upcoming Spring/Summer 2024.

A very rich proposal that in September will be structured in two macro areas, JEWELS and FASHION, in order to favour an increasingly clear, defined and immediate participation.

The JEWELS section hosts jewellery brands ranging from fine jewels to fashion jewellery and also a new section dedicated to Contemporary Jewels, where the contamination between design and fashion is expressed in a significant way, also thanks to the use of innovative and revolutionary materials and processing techniques.

The FASHION area will instead feature a Fashion Accessories section with a focus on accessories designed to enrich and complete outfits for an 'all-round' style, while ready-to-wear clothing will be located in the Fashion Apparel section, with original proposals and combinations.

HOMI Fashion&Jewels Exhibition is also a hub for discovering future trends, featuring two distinct areas, in cooperation with Poli Design:

Design Direction, a multimedia path capable of anticipating the guidelines of the next two years for jewelry and fashion accessories, and Visionaires, which will welcome the proposals of the designers who best interpret the season's must-haves and trending colors with innovative proposals in terms of materials, shapes, styles and colors.

It was also confirmed the partial simultaneity – from 17 to 20 September, once again at fieramilano – with MICAM Milano, the International Footwear Exhibition, MIPEL, the International Leather Goods and Fashion Accessory Exhibition, TheOneSpecial, the International Exhibition of Outerwear and Haute-à-porter – with the goal of expanding business opportunities for visiting operators.

Finally, as usual, the rich proposal of HOMI Fashion&Jewels Exhibition will be completed by a dynamic schedule of talks, meetings and master classes that will offer operators and trade professionals an insight on market trends, as well as ideas and suggestions on how to grow their business. And let's not forget about the eagerly awaited fashion shows, an exceptional showcase for exhibitors that will allow to find inspiration for the coming seasons.
